Evening Liquid Sunshine

Friday 26 June,
7 p.m. to 9.30 p.m.

This classic 5-mile (8 km) evening stroll takes us from a nature reserve at Coate Water through ice-age formed landscapes, into a chocolate box village. We'll stop for a well-earned break at a local watering hole (public house) before returning to Coate through the dappled shade of ancient copses whilst looking out over Swindon and its surrounding downs.

Please wear stout footwear and bring some money for refreshments.

Meet at Coate Water Ranger Centre.

Event leader Tom Murawicki.
