Questions & Answers about Swindon Shopmobility

What we do

Shopmobility provides a selection of manual and powered wheelchairs, scooters and walkers to help people with mobility difficulties to shop and use the other facilities in the town centre.

Who can use us

Anyone with limited mobility can use the scheme, whether through permanent or temporary disability, illness, accident or age.

Where we are

Swindon Shopmobility is situated on the ground floor of the Wyvern Car Park in Islington Street. Parking is available when using equipment borrowed from the scheme.

Opening Hours

Monday - Saturday
9.00am - 4.30pm
(all equipment to be back by 4.20pm).
Closed Sundays and all Bank Holidays

How much we charge

If after an initial free trial, you wish to join the scheme the registration fee is £10.00 per year. The service is then free each time you use it.

We will require proof of your identity on your first visit.

Booking in advance

It is advisable to book in advance to avoid disappointment.

Simply telephone us on 01793 512621 or by using the minicom on 01793 512625 or email

If transport to Swindon Shopmobility is a problem why not use Dial a Ride, you can contact them on 01793 616050.
