Artsminds No-Agenda Gathering Tuesday 25 July 2006

Another great evening of informality!

The Artsminds no-agenda gatherings are just that. There is no agenda, no presenters and no activities planned. It is an opportunity to meet fellow members and new members in a relaxed environment, have a drink and chat, and perhaps talk about things that are not work related, if we are permitted!

Once again we were joined by many new faces, which we hope we will see at the next gathering in September – again at the Community Crossroads.

A special thank you goes to the Sun Inn and their hospitality. Although they allowed us to use the fully air-conditioned conservatory (a hidden secret of Swindon no more) Artsminds members opted to brave the humidity of the evening weather.

A great night!
